

PIPELINES

NASHVILLE CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

OCTOBER, 2016

Dear Nashville Colleagues:

It was wonderful to see so many of you at the September 12th program. We owe our thanks to Rabbi Joshua Barton, West End Synagogue, for his desire to draw congregations together in the context of our commonly loved psalms and for the gracious hospitality he extended to us. Past-Dean Nick Bergin was at Josh Barton's right hand in conceiving and preparing the program; thank you, Nick! Thanks, as well, to chapter members Angela Tipps and Albennia Ladieu, who participated with their choirs. This is a program that will be long remembered.

Our next program is Monday, October 3rd, hosted by Jackson Schoos at the Cathedral of the Incarnation. We'll gather at 6:30 PM for a meal together in the adjacent Fleming Center. Then at 7:30 PM, Birmingham's Sursum Corda, directed by Lester Siegel, has prepared an interesting choral program for us; you will find their program listed elsewhere in the newsletter. This should be a stunning program in the Cathedral's acoustic. Please invite your singing friends to join us! Parking instructions may be found on page 9 of this Pipelines.

A short business item: when Elizabeth Smith was elected as the Chapter's Dean-Elect and Program Chair, her position on the Executive Committee became vacant. Our chapter bylaws stipulate that the Dean appoints a replacement. I'm pleased to report that Josh Coble has agreed to fill the one year remaining in Elizabeth's term, and we welcome Josh to the Executive Committee.

I hope you will remember that our student members always dine with us without charge. We are so fortunate that one of our members supports this endeavor.

Remember to get your flu shot! Stay healthy, and I'll look forward to seeing you October 3.

Rhonda Swanson

Dean

Sursum Corda

Sursum Corda was founded as an ensemble of 12 singers in late 2006. Its mission began as an ensemble to perform great choral music of the Christian and Jewish traditions, and over the years, has broadened that repertoire to include a variety of secular works, including commissions for original compositions. Based at Canterbury United Methodist Church in Mountain Brook, Alabama, the group has performed yearly in Birmingham, around the South, as well as at the 2011 national conference of the American Choral Directors Association in Chicago. In 2012, Sursum Corda members performed individual roles and as the chorus for a critically acclaimed concert performance of Purcell's opera Dido and Aeneas with the Alabama Symphony Orchestra under director, Justin Brown, and in 2016 the men of the ensemble performed Kurt Weill's The Seven Deadly Sins with the ASO under its current music director, Carlos Izcaray. The ensemble's debut compact disc, Illumine Our Hearts (MSR Classics), primarily features Jewish-themed music and was warmly received in Gramophone and numerous other publications. The group's second release, Welcome Yule!, was well received, with Fanfare noting the group "offers an appealing blend of voices, clarity of diction, tasteful phrasing, all of which comes together to produce an elegant, often ethereal, transparent sound." The conductor of the group is Lester Seigel, AAGO, who is the Joseph Hugh Thomas Professor of Music at Birmingham-Southern College, and is also Choirmaster and Organist at Canterbury United Methodist Church. Sursum Corda's concert program is:

At the Round Earth's Imagined Corners

MEMBER NEWS

Simon Thomas Jacobs will play an organ concert at Bower Chapel, Naples, Florida, on November 17, 7:30 PM.

Wilma Jensen will present an organ recital on October 14 at 7:30 PM, First Presbyterian Church, Vicksburg, Mississippi. The following day she will present a workshop — “Developing Natural Keyboard Techniques” from 9:30-11:30 AM, also at First Presbyterian, sponsored by the Jackson, Mississippi AGO Chapter.

Wilma Jensen attended the wedding of Janette Fishell and Richard Larnach in Bristol, England, on July 23, 2016, where she provided pre-service accompaniments for Rebecca Price, Soprano, in a group of English Folk Songs. She then played a midday recital at All Hallows by the Tower Anglican Church in London on Thursday, July 28. Future commitments related to Janet Fishell and Indiana University are as follows:

October 22, 2016—Choir Director for Janette Fishell-Richard Larnach Wedding Blessing, All Saints Church, Indianapolis, Indiana. October 23, 2016—Choirmaster/Organist for Sunday Morning Eucharist, All Saints Church, Indianapolis, and October 24-25, 2016—Teaching organ students, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana

New member Geoffrey Ward and his wife, Hilary Dow Ward, welcomed their first child recently. Congratulations.
