From the Dean

Dear Colleagues,

I love to learn. And learn we did on March 4, at Belle Meade United Methodist Church, when we gathered to hear Stephen Roberts as he discussed the organs of Bach in Central Germany. Yes, Bach used his toes, but also his heels! Many thanks to Mark Acker for hosting us and providing the technical support for Steve's DVD. The food (especially the banana pudding cake) and the fellowship were plentiful.

Our April 8 meeting will be a bit unusual in that we first will have dinner at Immanuel Baptist Church, and then drive around the corner to St. George's Episcopal Church to hear a concert by "Rising Star" Katelyn Emerson. Katelyn, whom we heard at our national convention last summer, has planned an interesting program with pieces by Langlais (trio sonata), Franck (E Major Chorale), Widor (Allegro Vivace from Fifth Symphony), Tournemire (Victimae Paschali), Jehan Alain and Mikael Tariverdiev.

The April meeting will include our annual election of officers. A short bio and picture are included with this Alla Breve. Please make every effort to attend, support the chapter, and vote for your officers, and to hear one of the "up and comers" in our profession.

I was saddened to hear of the recent deaths of four musicians I admired: Marie-Claire Alain, Van Cliburn, and our own Frances Southerland, and Anna Forrester. Do you remember the excitement we had when Marie-Claire made her Nashville debut in 1985 at First Baptist? I remember with delight meeting Van Cliburn when Fred Swann introduced us at the opening festivities of the fabulous Casavant organ at his church, Broadway Baptist in Fort Worth. Frances Southerland, long-time organist and director at historic Tulip Street United Methodist Church, was the music teacher of some of our chapter members, and gave a musical start to hundreds of kids in our community. Anna Forrester was tireless as she "worked the phones" and called AGO members for dinner reservations. She had a unique knowledge of our membership, which proved invaluable time-after-time. During Nashville '95, she and her husband Joe were so helpful to many travelers to Nashville. I remember each of these four affectionately and offer thanks for their lives among us. Requiescat in pace.

Darryl Miller, Dean

MARK ACKER is Director of Music, Worship and the Arts at Belle Meade United Methodist Church in Nashville. Mark's passion for the work of the AGO would be to strive to make every meeting a time of community, inspiration, and information. Additionally, he has an interest and passion for events that might bring greater interest to organ concerts in Nashville and events that might continue to help Nashville to be seen as a city of great organs in which organ concerts are a more integral part of the music life of our city.

JONATHAN SETZER is Co-Owner/Manager of Lois Fyfe Music, Vanderbilt University Organist, and an active organ substitute in Nashville area churches.
