From the Dean...

Dear Friends of Nashville AGO:

The first order of business is to express sadness that the January program had to be cancelled, due to weather conditions. What a fine line-up of compositions and presenters it really was. My sincerest thanks to William Taylor, host, and to Downtown Presbyterian for making preparations for the meeting...and to each and every one who made contacts with musicians, and arranged time in busy schedules to practice at the church. Appreciation is also expressed to a number of members who wrote nice notes to me—notes expressing gratitude for making the decision to cancel, and including a plea to please arrange for that program to be scheduled at another time. Jon Johnson and his planning team are doing just that: seeing if they can schedule the same compositions and performers into next year's program line-up.

The second order of business is to look forward to our February visit at West End United Methodist Church, hosted by Don Marler and Andrew Risinger, clergy and staff. The Guild co-sponsors with West End for the recital. Colin Andrews is a marvelous performer, and his announced program is exciting. Let's each one invite friends, choir members, fellow organists, and young musicians to this event. A nice meal is scheduled, and the fellowship around tables will make for a wonderful evening.

Peace to you in this New Year.

Thomas N. Moody

DEADLINE FOR MARCH ISSUE TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15

A CELEBRATION OF AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSIC AND THE NEGRO SPIRITUAL

will be presented at the Hermitage Church, 4580 Rachel's Lane, on Thursday, February 3, at 7 p.m. Dr. Roland Carter, professor in the American Music Department at UTC, is the guest conductor and narrator. This event is coordinated by the Fifteenth Avenue Baptist Church Music Ministry.

DR. ANTHONY WILLIAMS

will play a guest organ recital on Tuesday, February 8, at 8 p.m. in Ransdell Chapel, Campbellsville University (Kentucky). Music by Bach, Jongen, Franck, Vierne, Calvin Taylor, John Work III, and Florence Price is featured.

SINGING THROUGH THE YEAR

— The Middle Tennessee Chapter of Choristers Guild will hold their annual Children's Choir Festival on Saturday, February 26, at Second Presbyterian Church. Guest conductor for the all-day event is C. Michael Hawn, director of the Master of Sacred Music Program at SMU's Perkins School of Theology. In addition to a variety of anthems covering the liturgical year, workshops on how to use puppets, Orff instruments, recorders, sacred dance, handbells, etc. will be offered. For more information, contact Joel Bolen <jbolen@churchofstmatthew.org> or 615-550-5108.

After the chapter's snowed-out meeting in January, here's your chance to see the Egyptian Revival architecture of Downtown Presbyterian Church and to hear the recently refurbished Austin organ. DR. WILMA JENSEN will present a free organ concert on Sunday, February 27, at 3 PM.

PENNINGTON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Donelson, is looking for a choir director. The church has one Sunday service and one Wednesday rehearsal, and there is an opportunity to expand the program. A music degree is required. Contact: the Rev. Ray Newell <newellpennumc@comcast.net.>
